

HARBOUR VIEW

I live near the sea, north of Auckland. Above my house, there is a small but welcoming hill. It has a wooden chair and a breathtaking view of the sparkling ocean.

Some nights I go up there with my dad, my sister, and my brother. We play rippa rugby – passing and catching the ball. Sometimes my brother can't play because there are too many people. But my sister and I carry on. On the way home, I take one more look at the beautiful view.
